

Welcome

Welcome to the ninth edition of 'All Aboard' the news-sheet of the Central Appointments Unit (CAU) in the Office of the First Minister and deputy First Minister.

Its purpose is twofold, to provide information about public appointments and public bodies in Northern Ireland and publicise our six monthly public appointments vacancy list. ●

Lay Members – Industrial Tribunals and The Fair Employment Tribunal

The Industrial Tribunals and The Fair Employment Tribunal are independent judicial bodies which hear and determine claims in relation to a wide range of employment matters including, for example, victimisation, harassment, unfair dismissal, breach of contract, equal pay and discrimination on the grounds of gender, race, disability, age, religious belief and political opinion.

Tribunals are mainly comprised of three people, a legally qualified chairperson and two lay (non legal) members all drawn from a panel of suitably qualified individuals.

The Department for Employment and Learning is seeking to appoint up to 100 lay members to the panel from which Industrial Tribunal and The Fair Employment Tribunal members are drawn. All appointments to the panel will be made through a full public appointment process.

The Department is looking for applicants who can demonstrate knowledge and experience of employment rights from either an employee's or an employer's perspective and an appreciation of the corresponding legislation.

These are stimulating and challenging positions requiring total impartiality, independence and an attention to detail.

Tribunals are like the courts but less formal, they sit mainly in Belfast but use other centres throughout Northern Ireland as well.

If you would be interested in finding out more about the role of a lay panel member contact Mrs Pat Stringer 028 9025 7616. Further information on the work of the Industrial Tribunals and The Fair Employment Tribunal is also available at www.employmenttribunalsni.co.uk.

The Department is fully committed to the principles of equality of opportunity and selection on merit and welcomes applications from all sections of society regardless of gender, age, marital status, disability, religion, ethnic origin, political opinion, sexual orientation and whether or not you have dependants. ○

Vacancies

Included in this edition of 'All Aboard' is a list of the public appointment vacancies that are expected to arise during the second half of 2009. Any vacancies that arise after we go to print will be added to our website.

If you are interested in any of the vacancies listed, please contact the designated official who can provide you with more information about the appointment and when it is due to be filled. ●

Mailing list

The 'All Aboard' mailing list continues to grow but new members are always welcome. If you know anyone who might be interested in receiving a copy of 'All Aboard' please ask them to contact us, at the address below, and we will add their names to the list. ●
