

Dear Sir. I am writing in regard to the consultation paper concerning sexual orientation regulations, in particular questions 12 & 13.

I would ask that Conference Centres which have been based and are run <sup>according to</sup> on religious beliefs should be exempt from such regulations.

If equality and rights are the real issues, religious groups also have rights to maintain such centres, secular centres would facilitate homosexual groups.

Yours faithfully
Elizabeth Ashmore