

To whom it may concern,

In response to question 12 + 13 of the consultation paper, the regulations must include exceptions for the protection of membership of Christian organisations + charities.

Why should Christian organisations + churches be forced to admit into membership practising homosexuals who reject basic Christian sexual ethics? Surely Christians should be able to determine who is a true evangelical + who is not.

If Christian organisations are compelled to accept practising homosexuals as members this will totally destroy the integrity of the organisation.

Please take these concerns very seriously + change the regulations, as this is a very serious matter.

Carol Beggs.