Dear Mr Canavan

I write further to your correspondence regarding the Review of the Civic Forum.

Unfortunately, the executive council of the Association of Northern Ireland Education and Library Boards did not meet before the submission date for responses to the questions you posed regarding the Civic Forum and its future development. However, at its meeting on 3 September 2008 members discussed your request and the possibility of the Civic Forum being reconstituted.

The executive council agreed that, should the Civic Forum be re-established, the association would be glad to nominate as many representatives from education to serve on the new body as OFMDFM requires.

I look forward to hearing from you in due course in respect of the nominations to the Civic Forum.

Yours sincerely

John McCullough
